WELCOME TO FAIR ACRES . . .

The "Peak of Production" Sale is the inaugural auction of what is hoped will be an annual event. This first sale will be filled with the right kind of bulls and females.

The Ewalds and their guest consignors are all breed enthusiasts who have done much to promote our breed through sale consignments, exhibitions at fairs, positions in the Minnesota Shorthorn Association, and through trophies donated to junior exhibitors. You can show your appreciation for their efforts by attending this sale . . . you will help yourself up the ladder of success by purchasing from this high quality offering.

Last year Charley Ewald was named a "Builder of the Breed" by his fellow breeders. Here is what The Shorthorn World had to say in publicizing this recognition . . .

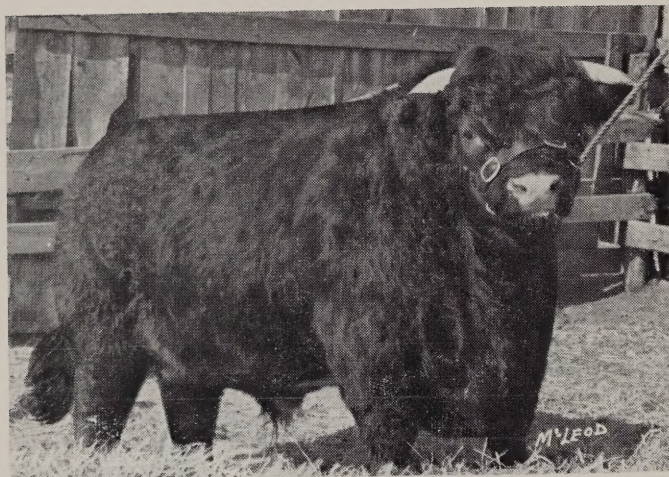

"Charles Ewald is one of the breed's greatest advocates of quality. The son of a German contractor, he has built up land holdings of 840 acres through judicious management. Sparing no expense, he liberally infused the best from Scotland and North America to establish one of the Midwest's best and most richly bred Shorthorn herds. With the help of a talented son, Fair Acres productions have been widely exposed at shows and sales. Their acceptance is indicated by an expanding circle of customers. He has given liberally of his time to breed and civic duties and served on the Minnesota Livestock Sanitary Board for 20 years. His efforts as a breed builder rank second to none."

We hope to see you at this event.

BILL STUNKEL, Sale Manager

CALROSSIE TRADEWIND

One of the best individuals and most successful breeding bulls ever to hit this country from Scotland. His sire, Banchory Orangeman, and grandsire, Gallant Marshall, are sires of such successful bulls as Kinellar Napoleon at Acadia Farms, Calrossie Diamond at Melbourne and Leveldale farms, and Calrossie Diadem at Bilmar Farms. Many cattlemen have told us that, after seeing Tradewind's calves, this bull could become the fountainhead for an important new Shorthorn dynasty in North America. Why not come to the sale and see for yourselves?

Mr. Charles Ewald
Fair Acres Stock Farm
Waldorf, Minnesota

Dear Mr. Ewald:

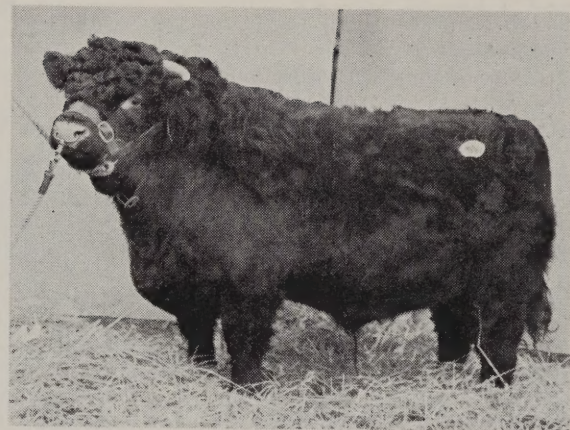

I was delighted to receive my Herd Bull Number of The Shorthorn World today and to see you featured in the "Builders of the Breed." It is a title that you very richly deserve. I was also pleased to see Tradewind is doing a good job for you and I notice he is the sire used to demonstrate a set of good quarters and correct rear-end to a bull.

The enclosed is a photo of Tradewind's son, Calrossie Good Fortune, sold in Perth in February, 1963, for 1,000 gns., and resold in Argentina at the sale of imported bulls on August 30 for the second top price of 850,000 pesos. Incidentally, the top price of 900,000 pesos was for a son of Calrossie Legend.

Another news item from Argentina that will please you is the fact that at the big Palermo Show and Sale in early August, the top average for a get-of-sire was secured by Calrossie Trademark — Tradewind's full brother — with three sons averaging 776,666 pesos, and Calrossie Jacobite was next in the list.

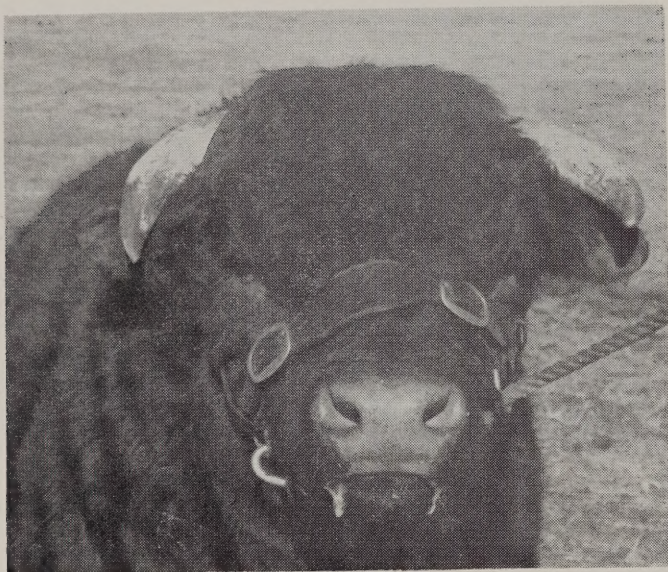

With kindest regards,

Yours sincerely,
Donald MacGillivray

CALROSSIE GOOD FORTUNE

Tradewind has already made a record in Scotland and Argentina. By buying the females carrying his service in this sale, you can get in on the ground floor, with this highly popular bloodline . . . or better yet, buy the son and daughter being offered as special attractions.

LOUADA CARDINAL

Purchased in the 1959 Louada Sale as a calf for $3,000. His sons and daughters have proven highly popular. A son was champion and top selling bull at the Minnesota State Sale last June. A daughter was grand champion at the Minnesota State Show at Austin last summer. Seven sons and 16 daughters are selling in this sale.
